Violation #3: Jesse Leon Manion, Jr. is considered to be in violation of his pretrial release conditions by failing to participate in recommended substance abuse groups and individual treatment sessions at Social Treatment Opportunity Programs (STOP) between March 17 and May 18, 2020.

On July 22, 2019, the conditions of pretrial release supervision were reviewed and signed by Mr. Manion. He acknowledged an understanding of his conditions, which included the additional condition of release.

On April 21, 2020, this officer spoke with Mr. Manion's substance abuse counselor at STOP who indicated Mr. Manion had not attended the group sessions during the first 2 weeks of April 2020.

This officer spoke with Mr. Manion on April 28, 2020, and he agreed to follow through with the recommended substance abuse treatment at STOP.

On May 18, 2020, Mr. Manion's substance abuse counselor at STOP confirmed Mr. Manion last attended an individual substance abuse session on March 16, 2020. The last substance abuse group session Mr. Manion attended at STOP was on March 17, 2020.
